

Citizen-Centric Digital Transformation in e-Government and Smart City Initiatives

29 Nov – 10 Dec, 2021
(Online)

REGISTER NOW

Course Details

Duration	Course Dates	Registration Deadline	Fee
2 weeks	29 Nov – 10 Dec, 2021	23 Nov, 2021	Free

Course Program

Module I: Understanding Citizen-Centric Digital Transformation

- Digital Transformation Brought by the COVID-19 Pandemic
  - Prof. Pilky Hong, Business Administration Dept., Seoul Digital University, Republic of Korea
- Global Trends in Digital Government & Smart City Development
  - Jongsung Hwang, Lead Researcher at NIA, Republic of Korea

Module II: Citizen-Centric Digital Transformation in e-Government

- Introduction to Korea's Digital Government Policy
  - Jongjun Park, Deputy Director of Digital Government Policy Division, Ministry of Interior and Safety, Republic of Korea
- Introduction to Korea's Digital Services:
  - – Mobile E-certificates
    - Yeonshim Kang, Deputy Director of the Civil Affairs System Innovation Division, Ministry of Interior and Safety, Republic of Korea
  - – Vaccine Reservation System
    - Eunju Kim, Vice President of the Cloud Technical Support Division at NIA, Republic of Korea
  - – Mobile Hometax
    - Hyunju Park, Deputy Director of the Hometax Operation Division, National Tax Service, Republic of Korea

Module III: Citizen-Centric Digital Transformation in Smart City Development

- Citizen-centric Innovation in the European Network of Living Labs
  - Evdokimos Konstantinidis, President of ENoLL, Belgium
- Smart City Spotlight: Osan City
  - Yeonghyeok Kim, Head of the Osan Smart City Center, Osan City, Republic of Korea
- Citizen-centric Smart City Policies: Seoul
  - Prof. Jung Hoon Lee, Yonsei University and Member of the Seoul Smart City Committee, Republic of Korea